

Lying is the still freedom of life
April 4, 2008
Joel Akin

Numbers 31:35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

This is the best way to find what we call still. Still is the way of the heart. The heart is the soul of a virgin. The virgin is called that when he has no way of having intercourse. It is true if a married man were to lose a wife he would return to being a virgin. Of course some might laugh but that is the wholeness of life. It is the base of life with God.

Of course if the wife is living then the man is not one of those we call virgins. She is distance and he remains connected. That connection makes him a man with experience. It is the point of losing a wife which is the freedom to express desire to remarry. That is the will of life. Men who die go to heaven and they lose what they have. Why? It is the will of the father to keep some of what we call secrets. It is the will of God to keep people wondering. People in Heaven procreate on leave or by grace. If that is strange in HEAVEN it is when men lie that they become still. That is the point of this quest for knowledge. For in HEAVEN there are three things.

1. This is the place of men who are virgin. It is the soul of heaven and the life of Heaven. Heaven is where God is. God does allow it because people who live there are perfect. They are people who are in the best of shape and the best of health. They go out and sing and dance and have fun. It is the place where God puts the best things of life for the people of Heaven.
2. HEAVEN is the soul means it is the place of longing for life. Men there are in the soul but not in the flesh. In HEAVEN men have no desire for increase. They do not want to have children. Not because of lack of love but because they wish to put God first. That is the special place of the Eunuch. The Eunuch is the soul of people who are broken in body and are there to be held and comforted. They are people who suffered horribly in life. Some of those who are there will be known below and will see them but will know they are special. They are people who have a gift of sight and it is one which is called life. Life is the season of prayer and the gift of hope. True life is the bit of pleasure which they see in the spiritual plane. For there they carry up their heart and it is borne.
3. The poor are here as well. They are the part which is to help them heal. The poor have a place in Gods home. One where the gift of life is given without flow or stopping. They have it in full but the gift of Spirit is the flow of life. Not in a moment but in a flow that will go on for an eternity. This is the flow of life and it is the flow to the point of men in the sea and in the flee of the season.

