

Mark the time

August 12, 2006

Joel Akin

Time is like a clock that winds forward. As it does so the time changes to mark the time with a ring or a gong. So it is with the return of the Christ. Time is marked with a trump and so the last trump would be like the last gong for the day. It would mark the ceasing of the day and the beginning of a new day. And if that new day is marked with a change in time then scripture surely would speak of new times and seasons. And so we would look for anything that would indicate to us that we are on the right path.

Yet if time is to change and we are to change then what is it that remains the same? Even the earth will be burnt up and all that it is in it. So if the earth is to be burned then what lives? The answer is us. We are the one thing that survives the burning of things. Things is all things and that which God makes is the pure thing or the righteous things that we will inherit.

How can this be? If we are on earth and all things are burned then who then will have food or flesh? If we are burned up with all things as Peter wrote

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

2 Peter 3:12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

The elements melt and the things dissolve and all things are destroyed. This is the one thing that confuses many Christians for they cannot see nor understand that all things means all things. So if you are sitting at your computer and God destroys all things then that means you'd be sitting at your computer when it happens. And then 'poof' you'd be sitting at a place where your heart is.

So if your heart is with God and Satan steals your soul then your soul is with whoever owns it. This means that Satan would have to relinquish your soul. And it means that the dissolved things would be remade as God did in the beginning. Except perhaps God might allow computers if that was a good thing and not evil as some might think.

So how then does this help us? If nothing seems to change and God remakes everything as it is then why do it in the first place? Think of sin as a suicide note that is being written. It is sin saying "I plan to kill myself" and so sin writes it even as we speak. Then he thinks "I will die because only sin will be destroyed. Not time or death or evil just sin. For sin is the one element that must be destroyed before anything can move forward. For evil is evil and all men are able to commit it even those who are good. They may deny it but study scripture. Even those who loved God with all their heart failed on occasion. If they failed to serve God then who is able to bear up under failure? Is not those who love God those who desire to serve Him? If you love God then you must serve Him. If you love sin then sin will destroy you.

So if sin is destroyed then how can evil remain? For if you do evil and sin is wiped off the face of the map then you are but a child. For evil is like children who fight against each other. They are without reason. Sin is the reason evil survived so long. It carried men and demonic spirits into each other and they fought and they carried sin. And sin was the one spirit that didn't want to submit to God. And God carried sin into a realm where it could be destroyed. That was a dark realm called Sin and Sin was then carried into itself so it could be carried into a place of forgetfulness. For Sin is the only spirit that can reconstitute itself if we are not careful. For it will be destroyed by all that is good and pure and just. And not one part of it must remain if there is to be hope.

Sin is like a man who fights and the man fights against sin but sin writes a suicide note and then carries himself into the sea. If sin knows its over then no one need worry about how it happened. For the memory of sin will remain but the knowledge of sin will be destroyed. Think of it as a book by a dark rider who lived on earth. If he was evil and didn't serve God then his body would be carried to Hell. His soul would be carried to the grave. His spirit would be carried to heaven. Heaven would then be the one place his spirit would be happy. The grave would be the part that hated life so would dream and in that dream would decide if he was evil or good. If good he would dream of things that he liked in life. If evil then he would dream of hell.

Sin is being destroyed in a furnace like hell and hell is being built so there is no way into life. If this sounds strange think of life as the one place that wants to be part of all things.

Hope is that which carries a man and hope is that which gives a man desire. If you want to be free then chose Jesus as your Lord and savior.

There are many things I hope to write on in the future. For now know that the Lord will return and he will come with 10,000 saints who have been part of this story. They will come with the shout of joy and the sound of triumph.

There will be shouting and jubilation. Men will be carried up into the spirit realm in their body which shall be transformed. It shall be changed so quick you won't know it happened. One moment you'll be at a computer and the next you'll be in clothing fit for a king. And not one who loves God will be left a beggar. All will be clothed and sent on to be part of the greatest love story the world has ever seen. There will be romance and joy and hope and love. And all those things you loved about earth will be there. And it will be perfect and beautiful and there will be those who will be happy and joyful. They will meet you at the Pearly Gate and it will become a famous spot for love for men and women and children who died will meet there. And people will be carried there from earth who are broken and shattered by time. And the angels will help you find a way into the place. Only those who have their names written in a big ledger will be let in but don't worry. God doesn't make mistakes and only the thief and the liar will try to break in to steal and destroy. Without success I must mention.

Now faith will open up things and all of those who are sad and lonely will find themselves carried up. Not slow or sorrowfully. But filled with joy. Your heart will be broken of sorrow and you will find it carried up so quickly you are rejoicing all the way.

Time is the key. For when this change comes and it is so soon you will want a sign. A sign is that which comes to the earth to tell them sin has been destroyed. Think of it this way. It will happen so quickly one day you walk outside and there is an angel guarding the door of your house and you say "Good morning angel. How are you today?" And the angel replied "Joel, we've been here morning after morning waiting for you to say "Good morning!" and we mean it.""

Now its true that many will start to see angels because sin has blinded their eyes but sin will try to rise up again and again in men so their heart can be blinded by time. But we want to encourage you not to give up. Because if you can encourage one in all heaven and earth then let it be those you love. For many do not want to see the resurrection of the body, not knowing that it is coming soon. And if they want to see the resurrection of the heart that will be soon also. So be encouraged. In all things there is a God who works on the backside and the flip side and knows all things. And He says to you who listen "Be careful for your soul and be joyful for your heart for in all things I have saved you for joy." And joy of the Lord is the life of your heart. And your heart is the key to time and the key to your joy. So remember that when these things come to pass God will remind men that he is in charge. They need not fear the demolition of the universe. It will be restored ASAP. God is just doing construction and demolition of old things. For all things must pass away and all things must become new.

And if you want to be part of the construction then hurry and pray. For time is almost up and you will be left with your jaw hanging open. And it will not be easy to bear if you see these things with eyes unopened by prayer. For God wants you to see all things so you can be happy.

Until then remember these things will come to those who wait and pray. And in all things remember God has an agenda and that Agenda is one where you are meant to play a part. And the bigger you think the bigger the agenda. So stop thinking so small as the Universes and start thinking of people.

With love to all.
