

Imagine a war between heaven and earth

Revelation 12:7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

All right people of earth. You are at war. Maybe not you, you but there is a war taking place between heaven and earth. And there is a battle taking place in your heart whether you know it or not. And that battle is being fought for your soul. And if your soul is in jeopardy you'd better start thinking about what I'm saying.

Now some Christians might say "Of course we're at war. We've been at war for thousands of years. So lets make a venture clear to you. This venture speaks to all of you who are Christian. This is no ordinary war. This is a battle of the ages. A power of evil Vs the power of God and heaven.

Now I know I'm part of this end time battle and I want you to know it is hell. The adversaries of evil have pummeled this part of the earth with their onslaught and darts and stones. The fact that you are ignorant of it might be seen as a blessing. But in other ways I find it rather sad that we are in the end times and most of you are asleep at the wheel. And you'll wake up only to find that you missed the greatest adventure that was from the beginnings of time.

So why do I speak like this? Because I know in whom I believed and I know that He is keeping me behind a shield of faith. Because God taught me what faith is and its not trust in je ne sais quoi or I don't know what. If you can explain faith clearly to me then you are part of this battle. If you can't and tell me faith is a mystery which we'll understand in the by and by then I'll say you are not on the right path.

Faith is about three things. First about hope. Second about things. Thirdly about a relationship with God. Not an imaginary relationship nor a relationship based on what you've done for God. No, a relationship based on He speaks, you speak, He teaches, you ask questions and learn. A real life relationship.

Its important that I state that because the world is filled with faith teachings that are based on things and on asking God for things. The way I've learned its God who usually brings up things and speaks of things He desires for your life. A relationship with God is the coolest thing in the Universe. Trust me. I know.

Now there is a war and it wasn't a little war. There was a battle where God Himself fought against literally billions. I was part of that battle. These were spiritual powers and authorities from throughout the known universe. They fought against God and they lost. It was after this battle that there was a back stabbing maneuver on the part of Satan and his dominion's and they separated me from the presence of God. It was this presence which allowed me to hear God on a clear channel. We were forced to speak on a side band called the Faith channel. It was during this skirmish that Satan rose up with his cowardly foes and tried to destroy me. I was left for dead in a mental hospital and the foes came out of the woodwork around me speaking through men in demonic voices. I heard them speak and they didn't care figuring I was a goner.

God came during this time in the form of a man and He watched over me while I was there. He spoke several times and gave me knowledge of His presence and I was able to escape from the Hospital for the demonic foes wanted me kept there permanently. I was a threat to their kingdom but God broke me out and set me on a new path called Freedom. In a dream I was shown this as an Eagle and the Eagle represented me but also the USA. And in this dream Christ rode the eagle carrying me and a young child who represented the Joy of the Lord. She was carried to the back part of Eden where I broke forth the Adamantine gates which only God could break. I fought with Satan and he was thrown out of Eden as a dog child. He was carried into the lineage of men and they were thrown back into anarchy. Soon they were carried up to heaven where they tried to steal back Eden which really is the third heaven. Paul spoke of this in the scripture where he speaks of seeing things through a glass darkly.

Now the things I saw were the fore bringer of things to come for in those same glass windows that Paul used I saw disaster coming upon earth.

That disaster is about to happen and men are not ready. I have fought with the dragon and lost but not permanently. He threw me down to earth and I fought with Satan again and again until I grew weary. It was during this time that God began to speak through a radio station called Lite 96 and I was given messages each day via the Holy Spirit who spoke through the words in coded messages. I was carried into the Spirit realm more than once to meet with God in dreams and in clouds. And I was shown the realm of men as it would be if there were a war and the entire earth was covered in darkness so deep I could not see beyond the door and a short distance by the light that came from beyond me. The world was filled with stone and there was nothing else that I saw.

This morning I got a coded message in song saying "How far is heaven" or "How far off is heaven" and I knew the Lord wanted me to cover that tonight.

Every spirit that wars against us hates what we write. There is a real war though it is in the spiritual where you can't see it. This means that it is a battle that is hurtful to the spirit and if you have one, which you probably do, then you might feel morose or sad lately. This is because that battle is against you as a Christian. And if you feel it slightly then imagine what its like at the center of the storm. That's how I feel pretty much everyday. I fight and I moan and I groan in ways that are conceivable to only a few. Now that I speak of this war lets be clear that all the things I write have to pass by me and if there is a discrepancy I am in the right to erase those things no matter what comes across. This means even if a spirit rises up to speak as Christ or God or sometimes the Holy Spirit I have a right to erase it.

Now how can I do this? Simple. I have to discern by prayer what is and isn't of God. And there is such a war over the tongue or the pen of a ready writer as scripture says that I can't find a way to stop it. Now you may think that I should be able to stop it but its been going on for thousands of years and that means even before Eden. And Eden was thought to be the ultimate beginning. It was but Time is tricky so lets just say that Earth is the Home of God and He created Eden to be a place where it would represent the Home balance. In other words a world within a world or Middle Earth. Now Middle Earth is real and it isn't in the earth but in space time. So think of it as a value called plus and the plus is followed by a zero. The zero is followed by a balance and the balance is followed by a notch called air. Now air isn't much to look at but it is the balance of things and things is like hope though that doesn't make sense to most.

Hope is like a tree that winds up into the air, like a cloud rising up because of heat, and it then rises to the heaven, which is the air. There it is carried to the star, which is heaven and from one star, our sun or Sol, it is carried to the center of the star. Now that part of the star is called the Entosphere or the center portion where it is cool. That is why the entire star doesn't explode. The center of the star has to be the price that is paid for the heat.

Now heat then becomes the part of the star that wants to explode out and does on occasion in the form of solar flare but these are tiny explosions and not nova or super nova. These are brought about because the center of the star explodes and the cold center is enveloped and then collapses. After the star collapses it is carried into an alternate realm. This alternate realm is meant to keep the star from rising up to destroy everything around it. If it did rise up it would prevent life ever from growing on those planets that surround it. This means life would not arise and this means that there would be no one able to become part of this story.

Of course there is always God who can take a collapsed star, like our own, and make it seem like it never happened. So how can you prove that our star collapsed? This is like asking "how can you tell how old the earth is" because there isn't an easy way to explain it except to say if you study the earth look for a sign in the atmosphere. The atmosphere is the cold part of earth and the hot part is in the center. If the hot part is in the center then the earth is part of its star. For the hot part is the core and the core is the part that is broken off so that it might become cool enough to be placed back into our sun. The light of the sun would increase seven fold. And this means it would happen in a day. Now most don't want the light of the sun to increase seven fold so lets look at one benefit. It would increase light sensitivity to the ninth degree and this means that light would benefit man. Light is the one thing that heals and it is the part of the sun that is meant to heal all people who see it. This increase in light is one of the signs meant to happen on earth.

It will not scorch men as the Scripture speaks of. That comes later when men will try to destroy the extra light. How? By placing bombs in the air with laser guided missiles aimed at the air. This sounds ludicrous but the air will be filled with spiritual knowledge. As in the clouds will speak and most men will not be able to handle the knowledge that is coming. Now when they fire these missiles they will destroy the atmosphere. It will seem like the end of everything and it will be. To some. The rest will be carried to a realm where they might rest for a thousand years. It is this part of the story that most find confusing. Is it trib pre, mid or post. So lets be frank. Its none and its all. There are three raptures and these three raptures are meant to carry men to the deliverance of their lives. It will be the biggest ride they've ever had and it will be as real as anything they do now. Only, and this is a big only, it will be into the air. Now we spoke of the air as becoming the message in the future, and it will be. Men will hide themselves in the rocks because the air will become the medium of the message.

This means that the message will become a witness and the witness will become a war. For the war will become something Satan cannot stop. He doesn't want men to hear the truth and the air will speak and write and it will become a warning to all men that they are on the wrong path.

Now if this sounds strange then test it with heaven and see what God has to say. For there are serious changes coming and this means everyone. All men must stop fighting. And if they don't they will never rise up. And this means God will find a way for them to stop or He will fight against them Himself.

Now you say "This doesn't make sense. God used Israel and He's used America to fight in the past" and these things are true. But this is a different time that is coming. A different time which is God who ordains it. This is the key to "how far off is heaven" for heaven is at the gate and it is knocking loudly. And if you are men or women then you are on His list. And if you fight with Him He will take you off that list. Now some might think that is ludicrous. After all you have to be on the list because of what Jesus did on earth and in the grave and in hell. That is true. He went there to fight so that men might turn to Him and they did. But he isn't rising up into the air for he lives in the air as we speak. Not in the clouds, nor in the atmosphere, but in the air which is heaven. Now heaven isn't heaven one, two and three though the scripture speaks of the third heaven as a place seen through a glass darkly. That is the realm Paul saw but it is the realm of dreams and in that realm there are men who fight and men who spend an eternity fighting. They are spiritual men who refuse to bow their knee to anyone. And they are part of you and each of you has to bow your knee to God or He will cast you into heaven three. Heaven three is a forbidden realm and the darkest place you can imagine. It is the dark realm of the spirit and in that realm hell is real.

Now you don't want to know this but every man has to go there, at least in the dream realm, to fight against a foe. It is the only way to press the spirit into service. Otherwise he/she sleeps in death and in the grave and you, your body, is carried to the dust. And that means you are nothing. So lets be frank. We are seriously going to tell you that most men on earth are not awake spiritually.

And if you think you have faith then show it by writing me and explaining it simply. If you can't and its a mystery to you then you don't have it.

Now if you have any questions regarding time, space or the universe then write me Joel at earthhouse@gmail.com If I don't know the answer then I will pray and ask God for a clear answer so you can be happy in life. Trust for the battle is the Lords and He will fight against the foe on your behalf. Writing is a way of pressing faith for faith is the key to understanding how you can be part of this last day adventure. Trust for this battle is not going to be evil for those who love God. And knowledge shall flow and flow until you are ready to cry. For there will never be a man lacking on earth who will share in these things without knowing there is a God who watches and knows that he is there with them. For heaven is there and it is coming to earth. And Jesus Himself shall rise up with the men of this age and rejoice for there was faith on the earth. And in faith there is hope for faith has broken through as of this hour. And in this know that sin is lacking in faith and in trust in God and death shall be no more. Only the world that rises up in the east which shall be called Mer. The seat of God or the Mer Sea seat. The city of God is called Mercy and the Mercy seat of God shall rise up in the east. And you who worship God shall see it in all its wonder. For these things are but a hairs breadth away. And in that hair is the city of hope which shall be called Calgary. Calgary, like Calvary shall become a city to which men will come from all time and all ages. For there was faith there and it was in that city that men shall cry out to God and shall say "Where is there a place like this." For God shall raise up this city to be like a word called Hope and Hope shall become a facet of the crown that will become a part of this city. For God does not cast off this crown and this city of Hope, Calgary, shall become the one city that shall survive whatever comes upon the earth. And men shall try to destroy it but fail. For God does not make a vain promise. Now listen people of time. You are on the right path but the wrong story is calling you. You need love and love is all you need and as God says "If there are any sick among you then let them call for the elders of the church and they shall be healed." For this story isn't going to end until the world has heard of these things. And the world shall know that there is a man who writes and who has faith. For God doesn't destroy a city by faith nor by trust. For in that there is hope for I will not destroy any place on earth unless they as a city state "We reject God" and then I will give them a chance to flee, as in Sodom and Gomorrah and if they refuse they will die.

I will not begin this judgment for a time. And in that time I will raise up those who are part of this last day story. If you read this then you may be part of it. Have hope and don't give up for there is a God who sees and knows your heart. And in that let there be a close.

With love.
