

I heard the call

Above all lands and all people and to all men I speak a word of hope. Life. Life is the beginning measure of time and from the hand of God that He brought forth that which none of us could bring. Life. I know we have been in a war that has stripped us down to our basics and we have cried in shame to the Lord "I am naked" and there was none to comfort. We have knocked on many a door crying out to the people within sight and hearing "help me for I am cold" But there were no doors that opened to us and no one who accepted our cry. But during those days of darkness the Lord rose up and said "I shall accomplish that which cannot be done. I shall bring forth life out of darkness." And that which could not be done was done that men might have a sign and a wonder to marvel over.

I have searched the hearts of those who would hear my voice and I would say with all love that I have never left you nor forsaken you.

Every person on the face of the earth needs to know that God has spoken a word of hope a word of life. Yet I have cried unto him day and night until I got through. And when I broke through I learned a secret from God that we of the Church have forgotten. A simple secret written in scripture in the Book of Daniel. For Daniel prayed continuously until he received an answer against the spiritual prince of Persia. In 21 days Daniel saw the future and saw time and God spoke for him not to worry about those days for they were yet to be written and still to come.

So why then have they not arrived? Why then do we still suffer on earth and why is that the doors remain closed? The answer is because of something called the perfect time of God. When I was a child I waited for my father and mother to take me, my brother and sister on a trip to California. It was a trip I will long remember and yet it was a trip that was long anticipated. Time seemed to slow down until we were in the car going down Route 66. And yet now I wait for God to move and I know answers like bits and pieces of a solution that we as a people of God need to hear. But He has let me know that I am not lost nor forgotten. And those of you who hear these words need to know that God is still in control.

Now I want you to understand that there is a war that is almost outgoing. It has been a war in the spiritual realm and there has been a battle raging so hot that the elements have burned with a fervent heat. There has been a war in the spiritual universe and the God you know has been in battle. He has fought against the enemies of the Lord and he has triumphed. They then sent in their battle groups and tried to overcome the separation of time that protects men in the realm we call earth. This separation was placed there as a spiritual barrier to keep men safe against those who were of the fallen realm. Sin had measured out their path and they had fallen into the depths of it so that which we call the beast had written the epitaph on their souls. This battle and this burning of the elements has a natural connection so that the earth, our planets and our realm are effected by the spiritual connections that are there. This battle shall continue until all those who hate the name of the Lord shall have to submit.

Then those further scriptures we know so well will then come to pass. Satan will be bound by an angel and cast down to Earth knowing that his time is short and during this time there will be signs and wonders on the earth. It will also be a time when you will see that which which was prophesied by the prophets when they speak of the glory of the Lord rising in the east. For out of the spiritual into the natural shall arise the Lord of hosts. And those spiritual barriers having been burned away by the melting of the elements shall begin to reveal those things that have kept men blinded to the spiritual realities around them.

It will be a time of great difficulty for some for many will find it difficult to adjust to spiritual knowledge having been kept blind by the gods of this world. But their eyes will be opened and their understanding will be made apparent and those men who have rejected God and his love will find themselves remaining on sin earth to burn themselves in fire with the beast which is at the heart of sin. All these things are yet to come but remember that we who are alive and remain will be caught up at the Last Trump. We shall be carried to the heavenly where our sorrows shall be no more and our lives will forever be in the care of the Lord far from sin and suffering. We shall see the Lord and speak with Him face to face and we shall speak with the Lord Jesus Christ. And we shall meet all those who have gone before in the Lord and we shall forever be with the Lord.
