

Souls of faint heart
August 4, 2008
Joel Akin

Joshua 2: 9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

We live in a time when men faint for lack of help. We see the world cursing off or cursing up but few take the name of Jesus as more than an offensive term. He is becoming offensive to the point that men cast him out of their meetings. He is torn from the constitution of time and eventually will lose all faith or face depending on who you speak of.

I for one do not wish a world where the name of Jesus is removed. We say we do it by reason of life but if you think of it we have taken on God in all the places which rightfully belong to him and HE WHO IS GOD ALONE!

I don't wish to be in the place of those who think they can get up to heaven and cast off God; and especially the name of His only begotten son. For if we carry him to the cross of life daily who among the world stands for him? The answer is the man who prays without end. Even if they don't seem to get any results on earth. God takes their prayers so seriously that he puts them into the book of life.

Now I take prayer as seriously as I can. I go into it with prayer and I take it to the point of anger. Anger wears me out so it is anger boring and bearing because I don't like to be angry. Some might but they are speaking of things beyond their concept.

Joshua had land given to him by God and the people knew it. No one sat and fought him on that precept. God makes things clear to people. He shows them the way to life is make up of things God has made. He who is God is the one who is free to do what it is right in our heart even if we don't like it. Thus if I sleep in prayer I go into the bill of life with a aim of the heart towards life with me.

I have a dream to be free and that freedom is going to come. I pray and I know it is there. Yet in the midst of it I have nothing to cling to except day by day writing and day after day praying for help. When the day of the Lord comes it is going to come with fire and with smoke. Smoke is going to be used to smote the enemy. It will quench the fire but it will also suffocate those who hinder the work of the Lord. So if you who are free wish to find life then trust and wait and give time to God to make a way where there is no way.

