

The bay of chocolate
July 22, 2008
Joel Akin

Deuteronomy 33:3 Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

If I were to write in the bay of a pig people would exclaim because it was unclean. If I were to write in the bay of noc people would say it is a ladder to the heavens of all heavens. Yet if I were to write of the sea of life in the sea it would be "It is" and "It is" until all the world was bought. For if the word of the Lord is built upon the house of life then it is the house or the home which is the buy of the century. For if people buy a house in the day of the Lord it would be worth a fortune in chocolate to the body of men of this day. For the house of the Lord is the cattle on a thousand hills.

Now in the day of old men bought a house and put it on a house. They built a home and put it into a sea of men. One went to the moon and the other to the deep. The deep was the sea but if you had a gift it was the deep. For the deep of the sea was made of men who had decomposed. If we take the word compose we hold it to a musical composition of life. It is the note of men and that is the body of time. Yet if the body is to be held in life it must be held in life of hope. Yet what if men of old had nothing but ashes? They would take them and build them up one bit at a time until they had reached a peak or peek. If they had it the devil would take it but that was the least of the problems for them. They knew it was the body of men in the sea who had a gift for the least of these. For the body of men was written in the sea of time with all prejudice the Devil could provide. He who was the Devil was also the devil. He held the men in a grip over the pride of life in the sea.

Now the price of it was that men held the body of life to the pea and the pee of their heart. We in this time mock those who think pee had history. It did. It was and is the sweat which the bee ate for its lunch. That went into pollen and poll came to mean the act of righting wrong of men upon the lee of the land. Le was the Bib and that was the course of the child moving up in land and in grace to the place of the cow.

Of course we fell and that was the problem of the moon for the cow was not able to make it over. That is on the way to being moved because God sees the picture. He knows it. He sees it. That seeing it means we are on the verge of a rapture. One in which the bible is caught up in men of Lee. They will come to the body of Christ and sing. They will rise up to be with the body of men in the body of time. They will sing of the grace of the Lord to the body of men. And in that is the promise of the noc or Chocolate.