

The will of the flour is to be the weet for the s
March 31, 2008
Joel Akin

Revelation 19:9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed [are] they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

The way of God is to be. To be is to be with help of God. God is the set of things in heaven. He is the call of life to the lamb of God. He is the call of those who are in heaven but with big emphasis on HEAVEN. It is the HEAVEN or Heaven of the Lord.

God is going to deliver the world and set free. He is about to deal with the last few things that are to be dealt with. They are the bored and the tired. The bored are those who insist God is going to bless. The tired are those who believe yet have not received.

In all things God is going to deal with the bell of the rina and that is the bride. She who is the bride is the corpulent one we call the church. She is large and like her weet with the s. She likes it with lucre and lucre is a twist on a word which I find odd. Well, first is when we take the l and put in s we have sucre which is French, among many other places with lucre like lucer, but the fact is it means to sweeten in English.

We have the weet there and it does end with ten but we want more. We want to know the portion God has for us. After all if this story is about those who fight each of us has a war bounty. So lets say weet is a word meaning wit and it was the foundation of those women who had the gift of witchery. They were the women who could spell bind you with a spell and they could potion you with a word. They knew it was good and they bound you with it in their own heart. They wanted it as power and they got it. They went after it with all their might. Until they got the orin. Now history doesn't tell us what the orin is except it has a grip or strength of what we'll call twenty. And if that is a joke it is a joke of a man who grips everything with a strength so great he crushes down the resistance.

Thus the world doesn't know it but I am the witty man who fights with the orin. It is the orin of strength and it is the orin of the wit with ch at the end of it. I do this by grace but I do it lest you stumble. You who want there to be wise men in the future need to know I say this with grace of God for if we find that men use power for their own end they will have to answer to God for it.

Thus the will of God is for us to use it to please the Lord. Now if that isn't of scripture we find in it the beginning of a new way of thought called "Taught of the Lord". For if God goes to the weet and makes it the bounty of life it is because I see it. The bounty of weet is the sweet of lucre. Lucre is a word meaning money. Thus God will grant me strength to cling to it with the might of men. Not one or two but many.

This is the price of a new way in the future when God will deliver the world. He will free it. He will set it free. He will use a man and the man will be lord or Lord of the world.