

The sue in the sweep
May 12, 2008
Joel Akin

1Samuel 6:7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

The best way to describe is to see. If we are in a war then we are like men of war. We find part but we don't have all. This means the enemy comes in like a flood. He takes us enemy. He fights us.

We assume the war is over. We take harbor in God. Yet we suffer. How can a wise God allow us to suffer? The only answer is "He can because he isn't in control."

If that bothers you think "What if God is not in control?" What if God is so vast in size he is allowing things to happen so that we can find a way to fight.

Allowing is like fishing in a sea with a partner. The one man is wise. He sees a storm and it is coming near. The other is a man catching fish. He has a net filling up. He is willing to die for the fish net.

The problem is that the storm will kill them if they remain. This is the why of God leaving. He is not able to bear the storm.

Having said that God allowed his heart and that is part Spirit, to remain. He carried us to the part which was a cave knowing we would just keep on fishing. He set us down there. The problem came to be that God became separated. He put us down into the sea of the deep.

We are the proof of this in life. We go to church. We find people suffering. We pray. They go home and suffer. They cry to God for endless years without receiving. Men cry with them. Yet we say "God does it all".

If I offend then wake up. The only answer is war. Who among you is going to race to church knowing you are physically separated from God? We bring it up all the time. We say "It is happening" and that is revival. The problem is revival has to appear with physical manifestations. Mani and fest so lets say mani is a word speaking of man and knee. Fest is the side of the north where people pray. They pray to the wall and never cease.

If men were to do this instead of pray little they would find that God hears. He would answer. Even if one man heard and prayed.

We bill the right of the chart to the clean side which is God. We are on the suey or chopped up side. We have been mushed into prosperity our way. It is a sick way for it doesn't allow others to be blessed. It is like what I do but I take what is yoked. That means its been used. I take those things to God with prayer. He doesn't say anything except a thought that this is the way of the future. For people will bring in their items and show them to God. They will offer them up as the new way of life.