

The soul of men
October 17, 2008
Joel Akin

Leviticus 7:25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth [it] shall be cut off from his people.

The soul is a bit of and a sort and a kind but not in the sense of a cow man. The cow or the house of men is bit and we who are men are spirit from the heart.

Our body is of the flesh and the flesh is of the creature. The creature is the only part of us able to survive what we face and that is death. If we face death we ponder it as the skull in the hand to the scientist. We see it with the face of Truth which is part of our conscience and yet also with life that we who are in Christ see with Hope. For in hope is the hope of the creature and this also is part of Gods word.

The creature has a heart to return but we who are men force the creature away from its truest nature. We as men turn the creature towards the breaking of the laws and whether they are seen as Gods laws or C-Laws the point of them is the roost and home and support nature made. God provided for the creature and the creature was meant to return to the hole in the ground but Christ bore that price. He went into the hole and arose and came out to show us that the hole was okay to dwell in. If Christ had the hole then the hole was the part of the story which was about going to hell and to the grave.

Of course some see the hole as the source of the abyss. The hole came to speak of the great divide. On one hand was the creature caught in the curse of men. They were influenced by the dog but the dog was out for fun and though it was dark it was darkness because of a curse made on Entropy and on Joy. For if the Morning Stars were angels then the angels fell and if Joy was one then she also fell. Only if Joy fell it was part of her as flesh. She was raised up by Worth so that life would be restored.

All things were and all things came about because of women. God created the universe with women and women were those who had been partly free of the curse which came about by way of life in the tree. They were those who came to us in the form of Grace and in the form of Life in Liberty and in the form of an Eagle and the Eagle carried us with Truth. There were things God revealed to me about Wisdom and Wisdom was of Entropy and Entropy was of things she had found. All in all man is the flesh and women are aiding him to raid the cupboard with hope for God to return.

