

The Kashmir of life in Sudan

October 2, 2008

Joel Akin

Revelation 16:3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead [man]: and every living soul died in the sea.

Suppose all the world came to a new low? Suppose God had an idea that would be the coolest thing in all the world? Suppose at first it bothered and then it made people laugh. That is because they began to understand what God does in history. Imagine the world as we know it is suddenly brought to a new low. All nations have a bite in them because of the economic crisis. All people. All. Then suppose God puts up a bill on the life of freedom. He puts up a bill for the sake of men. It is a bill so big it cannot be grasped and it cannot be made without taking it to a new line and that is the cost of freeing me of Sin and sin and the people of hell for the sake of their sins and dirty deeds.

People would say "No wonder no one can pay it" and they mean it. Then suppose God puts into perspective a child who prays for one day or the equivalent of thinking towards God the cost of the price of pin in the sin and they watch as the price of freedom is carried up to God by the way of one child. Then the price rolls back and the price moves up and the price moves down. Then watch as the child is told "Prayer doesn't work" and watch as the demons pay the price to bill the child into a lost world of pain. He goes to the price of life and casts off God. God goes to the people and says "Who will pray for this person?" For the child is no costing a bill so great no one but the mightiest of prayer warriors can even scrap the bit off the child but not in a way that reduces the prayer cost or the bill of that child.

It becomes, in a way, the darkest hill for men to climb. The hill of the bill is the task of finding out why Christ came. They will see that men had freedom. Then they will see they cast off the freedom which began with zero. They went down to the will of men and said 'We have freedom' but then they all went down to the will of time and said 'We have it' only they don't. They forgot that one of the enemies of life was time. Time became the price increase and it became the price of freedom to the people of the age of this time.

Some might say "It doesn't make sense. Jesus was born in zero." So we'll call that the price God paid and the price that men paid to have Christ put down to nothing. They did it by killing the dream of God and by putting him up as the only one who could aid us but in reality the 33 or 34 or 35 or whatever it was came to be the price of men and that was the price of 30 and so whatever Christ did was the price of freedom for those who were of life. Freedom came to be the price God paid and it was the price of freedom for 30 and if that seems impossible think of Noah. He and his family. 8. Imagine I had to pray as well for the price of 30 or 40 or 50 and that was all I could do. Would that make me a man of prayer? Yes. Only it is the gift of God to go further. And so I pray with hope and I pray with desire that all of you would know that freedom comes by the price of right in that which is of the lot and that can be all or some.